A notice inviting applications for a new parish councillor was placed on the noticeboard following the resignation of Cllr Livingstone. The position was to apply until the next public election held in May 2016, when all Heydon parish councillors would be up for re-election. Following the two-week advertising period ending on 24 March, the Clerk had received one application, from Mr Martin Shaw of 31 Chishill Road.

The residing members of the Parish Council voted unanimously to co-opt Martin Shaw as councillor and looked forward to working with him. Martin was given an election pack for the public election in May which, if he wished to be a candidate, had to be completed and handed to SCDC by 07 April.

It was agreed that Cllr Shaw should take over responsibility for footpaths from Cllr Carroll and that Cllr Carroll will in future be responsible for the chalk pit.
